ALLIED ARMIES ON OFFENSIVE

Making Herculean Efforts to Turn German Right Flank.

INVADERS GIVE WAY.

Quarter Million Russians Said to Have Reached France During the Past Three or Four Days.

Paris, Sept. 8—The allied army is on the offensive on the west of the long battle line today. Heavily re-enforced by reserves rushed from the south, the army of General D'Amade, co-operating with a strong British force, is making a herculean effort to turn the German right flank.

The Germans under General von Kluck are outnumbered and are reported slowly to be giving ground.

The French movement to succeed, however, must be completed before the hosts of the army of General Von Buelow, now being rushed to the rescue, arrive. General French is declared to be in command of the offensive movement which is believed here to be participated in by nearly the entire expenditionary army and the French Seventh army.

The allies are on the offensive at Precy-Sur-Ooise, thirty miles north and at Nanteuil-Le-Haudouin, thirty miles to the northeast, and it is stated at General Gallieni's headquarters that the German right has been driven back more than five miles.

The Germans are reported as strongly entrenched and to be utilizing to the utmost their machine guns and their light field artillery. It is a contest of speed. If Von Buelow's army can arrive before the German right is pierced the great numerical advantage now held by the allies will be in turn transferred to the Germans and they will immediately assume the offensive.

Rome, Sept 8—The Tribuna says that it has received definite information that the change in the German plans to besiege Paris was due to the arrival of 250,000 Russian troops on French soil. It says these troops were landed in accordance to plans perfected by the British war secretary, Earl Kitchener.

According to the report, the arrival of the Russian necessitated a change in the German plans and Emperor William hurried to Metz to confer with the general staff.

200 HIBERNIANS MEET HERE TODAY

Convention Opened at Lyceum Following High Mass.

AUTO RIDE TODAY.

Ball Scheduled for Tonight at Elks' Hall. Business Sessions and Election of Officers Tomorrow.

A solemn high mass which was attended by a large congregation was the opening event on the program of the convention of the Ancient Order of Hiberians, of Virginia, this morning. The Rev. Charles F. Donohoe, of Portsmouth, state chaplain of the Hiberians, was the celebrant. The Rev. J. F. Lucke, assistant pastor of St. Mary's Church, of this city acted as deacon and the Rev. H. J. Crowe, of Charlottesville, as sub-deacon. Music was furnished by a special choir composed of Mrs. Jacob Brill, Mrs. Robert F. Downham, Kenneth Ogden and Robert L. Wentzel.

The Rt. Rev. D. J. O'Connell bishop of the diocese of Richmond delivered the sermon. The bishop took for his text "Religious Tolerance" and made an eloquent and powerful address. He told of the great efforts to secure religious freedom in this country which was finally achieved through Washington, Mason and Jefferson, names associated with history of Alexandria. He welcomed the Hiberians and complimented them on the work that they have accomplished.

At 11 o'clock the opening session of the convention was held in the hall of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum. F. T. Quinn, county president, presided. An address of welcome was made by City Councilman Desmond, president of Alexandria Division No. 1, of the Hibernians. Brief addresses were made by Bishop O'Connell, John J. Blake, of Richmond, state president, and Mrs. S. J. Robinson, of Richmond, state president of the ladies' auxiliary.

At the conclusion of the public meetings separate sessions of the Hibernians and the Ladies' Auxiliary were held. The former met in Elks' Auditorium. Both of these buildings were decorated with the Irish and American colors.

This afternoon at three o'clock an automobile ride was extended to the visitors and at 8:30 tonight a grand ball will be held in the Elks' Hall. Tomorrow will be given up entirely to business the annual election of officers taking place at the morning session.

About two hundred delegates are present representing divisions in all parts of the state.

The local committee in charge of arrangements is as follows:—reception—William Desmond, chairman, R. E. Power, M. J. McFarland, and T. J. McFarland; entertainment—M. E. Greene, chairman, William Desmond, Dr. M. D. Delaney, J. D. Normoyle, John M. Lawler, M. R. O'Sullivan and George F. Bradley; halls and church services—M. Creegan, chairman, J. T. Sweeney, and Dr. E. A. Gorman; Press—M. J. McFarland, chairman, J. D. Normoyle and W. H. Sweeney; Badges—R. E. Power, chairman, J. McKenna and W. H. P. Kelley; Accomodations—F. J. Quinn, chairman, James Roche and T. McGowan; Decorations—M. J. McFarland, chairman, Clarence Monroe, H. Nugent and Thomas Priest.

Officers of Alexandria Division, No. 1, are: William Desmond, president; M. E. Greene, vice-president; M. J. McFarland, recording secretary; F. T. Quinn, financial secretary; James Roche, treasurer; J. T. Sweeney, Sergeant-at-arms; Thomas McGowan, sentinel and the Rev. L. chaplain.

MASONIC NOTICE.

A called meeting of Andrew Jackson Lodge, No. 120, A. F. & A. M. will be held Tuesday, September 8th, at 7:30 p. m. for work.

RICHOND AND BANGOR.

More Drunkenness in "Dry" City Than in Virginia

Richmond, Sept 8—According to police figures there is more drunkenness in Bangor, Me., than in Richmond.

Bangor has a population of 24,803 (census of 1910), and is the capital of an ancient "dry" (almost dried-up) State. From July 28th to August 24th, 1914, 366 arrests were made in Bangor for drunkenness.

Richmond has a population of about 150,000. The Police Court records show that from July 28th to August 24th there were 170 cases of drunkenness. Richmond is under local option law, and has 172 licensed saloons.

Through the Police Court books do not show them, there were—as police station records show—174 other arrest for drunkenness between the dates mentioned. These cases never reached court, being dismissed at the station houses.

This makes Richmond's total 344 as against 366 for Bangor. Though Richmond is about six times as big as Bangor, the latter city shows 22 more arrests.

WINNERS AT THE DYKE.

Results of Athletic Events at Labor Celebration.

The all-day outing of the Alexandria Trades Council at the Dyke yesterday passed off very pleasantly, a large number of members of organized labor and their friends being present. The winners of prizes for the athletic events were as follows:

50 yard dash for girls under 16, glass set, won by May Mander.

50 yard dash for boys under 16, catcher's mitt, won by Carl Dreifus.

100 yard dash, vest, won by C. E. Hayden.

Sack race for men, umbrella, won by R. O. Brown.

Boy's shoe race, won by P. Page.

Married men's race, won by K. Cockrell.

Dancing contest won by C. E. Wilkes.

G. McDermott, holding ticket 2724, was awarded the silver set. The bedstead was not awarded, owing to the fact that all of the tickets are not in.

AUSTRIANS ARE SURROUNDED

Said to be Penned in on Three Sides By the Russians.

PRESSING TO BERLIN.

Czar Proclaims Galicia a Russian Province—Eastern Portion is Held by The Invaders.

London, Sept 8—In an attempt to complete the trapping of the main Austrian army, Russian troops today are pushing around the Austrian's flank, while engaging the army in force in the center. Reports from St. Petersburg say the Austrian army is in a precarious position, bottled up on three sides by superior Russian forces, and its retreat cut off on the other side by swamps in the country about the San and Vistula rivers.

While the main Russian operations are against this Austrian army a big force is reported today as besieging Przemysl, the last remaining Austrian fortress in Galicia. If this stronghold is taken, Russia's way westward toward a junction of her forces on the East Prussian border for a march to Berlin would be cleared.

St. Petersburg, Sept 8.—Galicia is now a Russian province. An official proclamation signed yesterday and issued today by Czar Nicholas, making this announcement, emphasizes the extent of the great Russian victory over Austria. All of Eastern Galicia, as far as the river San, is now declared to be held by the Russians.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Grand Camp Will Convene at Newport News Tuesday, October 20th.

The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans was held at their hall last night. Lieutenant Commander Booker C. Hall presided.

A communicaton from the Grand Commander of the State was received, in which he urged a full attendance of delegates at the meeting of the Grand Camp which will be held at Newport News on Tuesday, October 20th, and the two following days.

The election of delegates to the Grand Camp was postponed until the October meeting.

The thanks of the camp were tendered to A. G. Uhler for war time letters. They will be placed in the museum of the camp.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The annual meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Harris & Shafer Company, will be held at the office of the company, 123 south Royal street, Alexandria, Va., at 2:30 P. M., Thursday, September 24, 1914.

CONTEST IN THE NINTH DISTRICT

Large Concourse Gather When Campaign Opens at Jonesville.

GOV. STUART PRESENT.

R. Tate Irvine Greeted With Uproarious Applause—Spoke 1 1/4 Hours, Semp Also Speaks.

Jonesville, Va, Sept. 8—Candidates of the three political parties opened the congressional campaign in the Ninth District at Jonesville yesterday morning, when the largest crowd in the history of the village appeared to give its attention to the chief exponents of the different political creeds. Among those who appeared on the rostrum in support of R. Tate Irvine, the Democratic candidate, was Governor Stuart, who is to be a chief aid in the campaign to wrest the Ninth District from the Republicans.

The Democratic rally was held on the lawn of the Jonesville Institute, where about 800 people had gathered to welcome Mr. Irvine. The porch was gaily decorated with flags and bunting and with pictures of President Wilson and Vice-President Marshall. The Roda Band escorted Mr. Irvine and Governor Stuart from the home of R. L. Pennington, and the people [illegible] enthusiastically as they passed.

When Mr. Irvine left the automobile in which he was conveyed, and made his way towards the platform a great ovation was accorded him, and hundreds s[illegible] and grasped his hand in pledge of their support. The meeting was opened by Lloyd Robinette, county chairman of Lee County, who delivered a short but effective speech, Judge C. J. Duncan, of Jonesville then introduced Mr. Irvine to the people as "your next Congressman."

When Mr. Irvine appeared on the platform the crowd yelled itself hoarse, and it was several minutes before he could begin his speech. He spoke for an hour and fifteen minutes, and held the attention of the audience without break, except during intervals of prolonged applause.

Mr. Pennington introduced Governor Stuart, and a great ovation was also accorded to the chief executive of the State. Governor Stuart began his speech by saying that he had one prepared, but that his predecessors had stolen his ammunition, that they had fired the big cannon, and that he would use simply musketry, and touch only on the high points. He discussed the brilliant achievements of President Wilson in a masterly manner, and interspersed the serious discussion with effective anecdotes, which appealed to the risibilities of his audience.

MOOSE IN BALTIMORE

Alexandrians Hear Vice-President Marshall at Dedication of New Home.

A number of Alexandria Moose went to Baltimore yesterday to attend the dedication of the new clubhouse of the Baltimore Moose and took part in the exercises. Vice-president Marshall was the principal speaker.

"Fraternity" was the Vice-President's theme, but he took time to "swat the uplifters" and all men and women who attempt to force upon a people laws which the people do not want and will not regard.

He got on this side track in telling of his job. He said that for six years, as Indiana's Governor and as Vice-President, he had nothing to do but go around and tell other people what to do. And if he had charge of the world every man and woman would have to read the Bible, to learn that God made all nations of one blood; read Shakespeare, to learn the great American weakness of intellectual cowardice, and Buckle's "History of Civilization," to learn the uselessness of passing laws the people do not want.

FRATERNALISM AS A CURE.

At this point he said that there would be no need of an Eight-Hour law if the men who employ labor would grasp the laboring man's hand over the altar of the Loyal Order of Moose. The crowd broke into cheers lasting for several minutes.

"I preside over what is known as the greatest and longest deliberative body in the world," Mr. Marshall said, "and I have little faith in any law not answering the demand of the people. The laws not demanded by the people are passed at the instance of good, well-meaning and presumably intelligent people who immediately forget them.

"Such laws can never be enforced. The people must be back of the law. You men and women are the law enfrocers of Baltimore. What good could the police do if you were not supporting them in keeping the peace?

"There is to much treating of symptoms, anyway, in this country We are willing to relieve sickness and distress, but let the causes remain. We get hysterical over saving a few Magdalenes and neglect the woman who need our help far more.

"I am not a uplifter. I don't run with that crowd. The streets of Jerusalem are kept clean by every man sweeping in front of his own door. I believe in keeping myself straight first.

"But these reformers find some 'crying need' or 'crying shame' organize a society for protection or suppression, elect a board of directors and appoint a secretary, and then go down to the Legislature to get an appropriation to pay the salaries of the secretary and the board.

"Do not class me with these. For I tell you that the laws of this land will be as beer spilled in the street unless the laws express the conscience of the men and women of America."

At 6 o'clock a banquet was given in honor of Director-General James J. Davis, of Pittsburgh, and the visiting delegations from other cities. Baltimore Dictator Cassedy presided, and among the other guest of honor were the officers of Philadelphia Lodge, which has 20,000 members and is claimed to be the largest single fraternity lodge in the world.

Supreme Dictator Mehlan M. Garland and Director Davis, with the assistance of Mr. Ford and others, told how the order had grown from less than 200,000 to more than 600,000 members within six years, much through the efforts of Mr. Davis, who slept in a Pullman berth 300 nights last year, and who knows 10,000 men in America by their first name.

PERMITS FOR SCHOOL

Over One Thousand Permits for Admission Issued to Pupils Today.

The work of issuing permits to children who will attend the public schools this year commenced this morning. Long lines formed inside the building awaiting their turns to appear before the clerk or his assistants.

As had been anticipated, there was a rush from nine o'clock this morning until two o'clock this afternoon when the hall was closed for the day.

The scholars as fast as they secured the necessary permits repaired to Washington and Lee Schools where they were examined and placed in the proper rooms. Some were sent to higher grades, and others continued in those in which they were taught last year.

As had been anticipated, the applications for permits exceeded those of previous years, 505 girls and 496 boys having secured permits today.

FAIR WEATHER AHEAD.

Weather Bureau Excepts Only Beginning And End of Week.

Weather indications for the week, the Weather Bureau reports, are that with the exception of unsettled weather in the Middle Atlantic and New England States, the weather will be generally fair, with seasonable temperatures during next several days over practically all parts of the country.

The next disturbance of importance to cross the country will appear in the Far West Monday or Tuesday and move eastward over the Middle West Wednesday or Thursday, and the eastern States about Friday. This disturbance will be attended by local showers and thunderstorms and be followed by considerably cooler weather.

There are no indications at this time of a disturbance in the West Indies.

PREPARE FOR STATE FAIR.

Annual Event Will be Held October 5th to 10th

Richmond, Va., Sept. 8.—The noise of war and echoes of political uproar do not seem sufficient to take the attention of Virginia people from the Virginia State Fair, which will be held this year in the State Fair Grounds at Richmond October 5-6-7-8-9-10. Keen interest is being manifested in the preparations for this annual event and it would appear, even at this early date, that the attendance is to be very large.

Certain it is that the people who do pass through the revolving gates this fall will find awaiting them a greater and finer fair than ever before. The free show in front of the grand stand, famous all over the State for its thrills, is to be more absorbing than ever. Free shows are to cost the State Fair Association something like $25,000 this year.

The sum of $50,000 has been offered by the association in premiums for every conceivable kind of agricultural, stock, and household exhibits. The handsome premium list has come from the printer and may be obtained by dropping a post card to the Virginia State Fair Association, Mutual Building, Richmond, Va.

The racing committee promises some striking events on the track. The purses offered are generous and calculated to attract fine stables. Harness races are scheduled for the first four days of the fair week and running races for Friday and Saturday.

Great care has been exercised by the board of directors in choosing the shows for the Midway this year. It is expected that these attractions will be superior in tone and quality to those offered in other years. It has been definitely decided that there are to be no dancing girls shows and the Midway is to be conducted with refinement.

Among the Midway attractions already booked are: The Posing Horses; the new Auto Drome. Wild Animal Show; an athletic show; the Submarine Wonders; Wild West. Ocean Wave; Ferris Wheel; The Flying Lady; Crazy House, and many others too numerous to mention.

"Dare-Devil Schreyer," who is called the greatest gambler in the world because he gambles daily with death, has been engaged for the free show in front of the grandstand. His feat which consists in riding a bcycle down a narrow incline, whereupon he dives from the wheel into a tank no larger than a dining room table, defies description. It is unbelievable until one has seen it.

FLAG DAY IN ROANOKE.

Virginia City Celebrates Star-Spangled Banner Centennial.

Roanoke, Va., Sept. 8.—Flag Day was celebrated here yesterday, it being Roanoke's observance of tht Star-Spangled Banner Centennial. A parade, in which the fraternal, labor and military organizations participated, and exercises in Elmwood Park, made up the program.

Congressman A. J. Montague, of Richmond spoke following which a United States flag was raised on an 86-foot pole in the park and a salute of 21 guns fired.

Storm in Northumberland.

Heathville, Va., Sept. 8.—A severe windstorm passed over Village, Northumberland county, Sunday. Houses and fences were blown down and trees uprooted. The new Baptist Church at Bethany was demolished and the grove in which the church was located ruined. Lightning struck the residence of G. A. Richardson, doing considerable damage. The new home of Ernie Winstead was blown from its foundations and destroyed. The damage will amount to several thousand dollars.

ROBERT E. LEE ON THE SALOON.

I was walking with him one day, in Lexington, during the sway of the military when seeing a young man stagger out of one of the barrooms, he seemed very much annoyed by the spectacle, and said "I wish that these military gentlemen, while they are doing so many things which they have no right to do, would close up all these grog shops which are luring our young men to destruction"—Dr. J. Mm. Jones, Lee's chaplain, in "Life and Letters" of General Lee.

VOTE FOR STATE WIDE PROHIBITION.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Word has been received of the death in Austria Saturday of Mrs. Richard Croker, wife of the former leader of Tammany Hall.

As a result of mistaking toadstools for mushrooms, Jacob May, weathy brick manufacturer, and William Ogden are dead, and Michael May and George Bandy are said to be dying in Lafayette, Ind.

Four persons were killed yesterday when a draft of empty Pennsylvania Railroad passenger coaches struck a trolley car on the outskirts of Bridgeton, N. J.

A dispatch to the London Chronicle from Bordeaux says. Much attention is being paid here to the possible inclusion of Italy and Spain in the number of countries at war. The strained relations between Italy and her former allies have been greatly aggravated in the past three days, while in spirit, it is said, public opinion is becoming most insistent for a declaration in support of Great Britain and France."

The worst flood in ten years yesterday washed away dozens of houses in the suburbs of Kansas City, rendering hundreds of people homeless and putting all street cars and railway trains out of commission. A total of 6.9 inches of rain fell in nine hours.

Charles Zellers, aged 18 years, a high school student, son of William Zellers, was killed by an explosion gasoline at Shippensburg, Md., Saturday. He applied a match to a five-gallon jug of gasoline. The jug exploded and the young man was thrown backward into a cess pool 30 feet deep, where the body was found soon afterward. The explosion practically demolished the outhouse.

Emil A. Billetter, a well known designer and builder of marine motors, was drowned with his wife in the Delaware River yesterday near Bordentown, N. J. Mrs. Billetter was swept overboard by the swinging boom of the sloop-yacht in which she was cruising with her husband, her daughter, and several friends. Mr. Billetter leaped after his wife, but became exhausted in attempting to keep her head above the water and both were drowned.

Bela Singh is under arrest at Vancouver, British Columbia, in connection with the shooting of seven Sikhs at religious ceremonies in the Sikh temple Sunday night. Three of the wounded are expected to die. The Sikhs were members of a funeral party which but a few hours before had attended the cremation of the body of Argan Singh, who was fatally wounded on Thursday night at his home.

President Wilson yesterday submitted a plan for a 3-year truce to all parties in the Colorado mining strike. In urging the acceptance of this plan, the President alluded to the need, growing out of the European war, that all untoward and threatening circumstances be taken out of the life of the people of the United States, and at the same time served warning that the Federal troops could not be expected to do police duty in the strike districts indefinitely.

There were two murders in Washington yesterday. The first was at 1:15 o'clock in the afternoon at 461 Armory place, southwest, when John Wesley, colored, 21 years old, a laborer, residing there, was stabbed in the left breast and died before he could be taken to Emergency Hospital. The second murder was that of Gertrude Jackson, also colored, 27 years old, who was shot and instantly killed by her brother, Lawrence Robinson, 22 years old, shortly after 8 o'clock last night. Robinson was arrested. The killing of Wesley was the result of a quarrel following excessive drinking. The killing of Gertrude Jackson by her brother was the result of a quarrel over a street car ticket.

CITY COUNCIL TONIGHT

An adjourned meeting of the City Council will be held tonight. The committees will probably be announced at this meeting. It it not thought a Police Commissoner to take the place of N. J. Lawler will be selected.

DIED—At her residence, 1106 Prince street, at 11:25 P. M. Monday, MRS. M. C. WEADON, widow of W. G. Weadon. Funeral at 3:30 Wednesday. Friends invited. Washington and Baltimore papers please copy.

FOR SALE—Cheap—1 steel kitchen range, 1 Singer shoemaker's machine, both good as new. Apply at 617 King street. 8-3t

LOCAL BREVITIES

T. J. Fanning, of Philadelphia, will deliver a prohibition address at the First Baptist Church tonight.

WHY A FORD—Because a heavy car is more bother and trouble to keep in order and is far more liable to inury than a light car.

The new Richmond hall, occupying the second floor of the Richmond theatre, will be formally opened on next Monday night by a dance given by the Richmond Assembly.

The Loyal Order of Moose Committee who visted Camden, Philadelphia, Wimington and Baltimore Lodges, retuned home last night after having met with committees from the above lodges. They received assurances of a visitation from each of the lodge during the fall carnival.

Those who fail to attend the Richmond theater tonight will miss a treat. The feature picture is a three reel comedy, Bungling Bunks Bunco. Many thrilling scenes will be shown in this picture in which lions, elephants and other animals take part. This is an unusual comedy which will please one and all.

SALE OF MT. VERNON STABLES

Samuel H. Lunt, auctioneer, will offer for sale at noon tomorrow in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall, the property known as the Mount Vernon Stables. The property embraces a four-story brick stable. The sale will be made under a decree of the Corporation Court. C. B. Marshall and Howard W. Smith are the commissioners.

IRISH HARP AND STARS AND STRIPES.

Ireland's national colors and the flag of the United States are now flying side by side in front of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum on Duke street, and everything possible is being done to make the visit of the Hibernians of the Old Dominion pleasant during their stay in Alexandria. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Order is also holding its sessions in this city. Members of both organizations have been accorded a hearty welcome by their Alexandria friends, not only those representing the honored Hiberians, but by citizens of all classes.

The Sodality Lyceum Hall, in which the Hiberians are gathered, has been appropriately andbeautifully decorated for the occasion, as has also the Elks' Hall, where the Auxiliary is in session.

Rev. Father Donoghue, state chaplain, celebrated Mass this morning in St. Mary's Church, Rt. Rev. D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of the Diocese of Richmond, was present and delivered an interesting and instructive address.

The Ancient Order of Hiberians is a vigorous organization, and years ago became one of Alexandria's honored and fixed institutions. Its roll embraces the names of many of our representative citizens, and its steady growth bespeaks for it a bright future.

Irish blood courses through the veins of a large percentage of Americans. In colonial days many people from the Emerald Isle cast their lot with us, and in subsequent years thousands more, from one reason or another, risked their lives in sailing ships of old to reach the land of the free and the home of the brave. During our Revolutionary war Irishmen played important parts, as they did in the war of 1812, the Mexican war and on both sides during the unfortunate war between the states.

In our own local history natives of Erin or their descendants have figured prominently and are doing so at this day.

While their nationality invariably becomes emerged with their adopted country, they never forget the centuries of struggling which has been going in the land of their fathers, and the strains of "wearing of the Green" send thrills through their souls as do "Dixie" and "Yankee Doodle" the people of the North and South. While absent in the flesh, the shade of Robert Emmett may be hovering over Hibernians of Virginia today.

EFFECTS OF THE STATEWIDE ISSUE.

It has often been noticed that upon the eve of a national election, when the tariff has been an issue, that business lags, financiers, to use a vulgarism, not knowing upon which side the cat will jump, being loth to embark in new enterprises or stake too much in old until the results of the contest shall have been made known.

A similar state of affairs exists in Virginia today while the prohibition and anti-prohibition forces are alligning themselves for the election on the 22d instant. The effect upon business is appalling, especially at a time when people are anxious concerning the approach of cold weather. After having passed through the heat waves of July and the dog days of August, during which months some plants have been shut down, to arrive at the beginning of fall with empty coal bins, exhausted flour barrels and cobwebs increasing upon industries which was supposed would reopen with the advent of September, are the conditions facing industrious workmen in Alexandria and other places in Virginia today. The glass works, which form an important part of the backbone of Alexandria's commercial structure, are seriously crippled by the vexatious and what is believed by many to be the unnecessary battle now in progress between the wets and drys of the Old Dominion.

Two of the four glass plants opened up today, and they with diminished forces. Two others are silent as Tara's Hall.

Some glassblowers are preparing to enter other fields in order to make a living for wives and little ones dependent upon them.

The alarming obligations of our city, as portrayed in yesterday's Gazette, has also sent a chill down the back of all interested in Alexandria, when it is realized that with the already large burdens upon the body politic about twelve thusand dollars are to be taken from her by the obliteration of one of the channels from which the city obtained aid in meeting steadily growing obligations.

Hundreds of laboring men abstained from participating in the pleasures incident to Labor Day yesterday from the fact that their small savings had been exhausted during the enforced idleness of summer and with the knowledge that they were likely to battle with winter, when their wants will be increased, by still furthered enforced idleness superinduced by a temperance issue.

Some participated in the holiday diversions with sad hearts, as they watched the gambols of their little ones, too young to understand the conflict raging in the breast of bread-winners.

Vice President Marshall is a wise man in his day and generation. He delivered a speech at the centennial celebration in Baltimore yesterday. Among other things he said:

"I am not an uplifter," "The streets of Jerusalem are kept clean by every man sweeping in front of his own door. I believe in keeping myself straight first."

Continuing Mr. Marshall declared that laws not demanded by the people are passed at the instance of well-meaning and presumably intelligent people.

Reformers find some 'crying need' or 'crying shame,' organize a society for protection or suppression, elect a board of directors, and appoint a secretary and then go down to the legislature to get an appropriation to pay the salaries of the secretary and the board.

"Pipe smoking gives added pleasure to a golfer when the pipe is filled with Tuxedo. Tuxedo provides more keen enjoyment than any other tobacco I know."

Tee Up! Smoke Up!

AS satisfying as the sounding smack of the perfect drive, is the open-air relish of the perfect smoke—Tuxedo. Both go together, too. When you grab your bag and start for the links, grab up your tin of Tuxedo and take it along.

"Follow through" the snappy afternoon with Tuxedo. Put Tuxedo in your pipe and you will "put" the best. And at "the nineteenth hole" rest up and relax with a good, solid smoke of Tuxedo. That's the advice of good golfers everywhere.

ALEX CAMPBELL
Country Club, Brookline, Mass.

"I am always glad to speak a good word for Tuxedo tobacco. Constant use of it only serves to make it better liked. Its fragrant, soothing flavor makes it the choice of many golfers."

Alex Campbell

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

It's worth your while to try Tuxedo Especially if a sensitive tongue prevents pipe smoking.

Tuxedo positively cannot bite—not even if you smoke pipeful after pipeful, as many as you can crowd into a day or a week.

Tuxedo is made of only the finest, choicest, selected leaves of perfectly aged Burley tobacco. It is made by the original "Tuxedo Process" which removes every trace of bite and sting and develops all the wonderful mildness, fragrance and flavor of the Burley Leaf in a way that no other brand of tobacco has ever successfully imitated.

ALEX ROSS
National Open Champion 1901, 1903

"Tuxedo, cool and mild, is essentially the smoke that satisfies. Many of my fellow golfers agree with me in giving preference to Tuxedo."

MEMORIAL TO MRS. WILSON

Will Take Form of Fund for Education of Poor Boys And Girls in Mountains of South.

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 8.—A definite plan has just been completed in outline by which a memorial to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson will be erected by the Southern Presbyterian Church, the church of herself and her husband and the church to which the father of each, Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, D. D., and Rev. Edward S. Axson, D.D., gave many years of service as ministers of the gospel. The plan for this memorial and its origin at a missionary conference of Presbyterian women held recently, and the executive committee of home missions, located at Atlanta, Ga., is co-operating with the women in the organization of the memorial movement. One of the secretaries of the home mission committee, Rev. Homer McMillan D.D., was present at the conference of women, in which this memorial movement had its origin, and he has given them valuable assistance in the furtherance of the movement. This memorial will take the form of a fund to be applied to the education of poor boys and girls in the mountains of the south, in whom Mrs. Wilson had manifested great interest, and many of whom she had generally aided with her means and with her wise counsel.

For a good many months I had trouble with my stomach and found it necessary to eat sparingly," writes Mrs. Bernice Wyandt, Lima, Ohio. "There was a dull and heavy feeling in my stomach after eating that was most uncomfortable. I was also annoyed by frequent headaches. After taking a number of medicines without benefit I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and found they were just the thing. Two bottles of them rid me of this complaint." For sale by all dealers.

ROBERT SCOTT BURIED.

Funeral Services Over Automobile Victims.

Richmond, Sept. 8.—The funeral of Robert Taylor Scott, son of Judge R. Carter Scott, who was killed in an automobile accident near Middleburg early Saturday morning, was held yesterday at 11 o'clock. The services took place at St. Paul's Church.

A. M. Charrington, who was hurt in the same accident in which Mr. Scott was killed, has been taken from "The Plains" where he was carried after the accident, to the Episcopal Ear and Throat Hospital, in Washington. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. Easley Cooper and by Dr. Robert Shackelford. He was operated on by Dr. William Sowers immediately after arriving in Washington. Charrington's injuries were at first considered not to be serious, but bleeding from the ears continued and the cuts at the base of the brain indicated that there might be complications, so it was decided to remove him to a hospital at once.

Morton Keith, who was also injured, was removed from "The Plains" to "Woodburne," the home of the Keiths, near Warrenton. Judge James Keith went to Warrenton last night to be at the bedside of his son. Keith's injuries are slight, and are considered not to be serious.

LOCAL OPTION THE ISSUE

DR. JAMES CANNON ADMITTED IT IN SIGNED STATEMENT.

A TALE OF ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE LEGERDEMAIN.

Here is an astounding piece of intelligence for those whose ears have become weary of Dr. James Cannon's endless refrain. "The Issue Is the Saloon—the Issue Is Not State-Wide Prohibition Against Local Option."

You have heard it. Dr. Cannon, who is Virginia superintendent of the National Anti-Saloon League, headquarters at Westerville, Ohio, has shouted it so often that he would have you think that he believes it himself.

Yet, as late as January 30, 1914, he issued a signed statement in which, as chairman of the legislative committee of the Anti-Saloon League, he DECLARED that the issue WAS State-wide prohibition against local option.

It came about when the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections amended the enabling act that was passed by the House of Delegates so that the ballots in the special election this month should read, "For State-wide prohibition" and "for local option"—a ballot which would have stated the issue fairly and given neither side the advantage.

But the State-widers did not want the issue stated fairly. They wanted every advantage they could get—they needed it. So they bargained, cajoled and threatened until they secured a majority in the Senate large enough to kill the amendment. The fair ballot was killed and the unfair ballot was restored—the ballot which the voters will use on September 22.

Just how they killed the fair ballot is a story of legislative trickery which bears striking witness to the methods that the Anti-Saloon League resorts to to attain its ends. It is too long a story to relate here. It will appear later.

We come now to Dr. Cannon's legerdemain.

Three days after the Senate Committee had inserted in the bill the fair ballot, January 30, 1914, Dr. Cannon issued over his signature a public statement, in which he had this to say about the change:

"The Senate Committee proposes to change the form of ballot so that it shall read, 'For State-wide prohibition' and 'for local option,' instead of, as it now reads, 'For State-wide prohibition' and 'against State-wide prohibition.'"

"THIS CHANGE OF THE FORM OF BALLOT DOES NOT CHANGE IN ANY WAY THE PRINCIPLE INVOLVED. WERE THE FORM OF BALLOT TO REMAIN AS IT WAS IN THE BILL AS IT WAS PASSED BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, THE ISSUE WOULD REALLY BE WHETHER WE SHOULD HAVE STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION OR WHETHER THE PRESENT LOCAL OPTION LAWS SHOULD CONTINUE."

Well, the "ballot as it was in the bill passed by the House of Delegates" is the ballot that was finally carried—the unfair ballot. And, therefore, you would expect Dr. Cannon to repeat, since the ballot is "as it was in the bill" that:

"THE ISSUE IS WHETHER WE SHOULD HAVE STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION OR WHETHER THE PRESENT LOCAL OPTION LAWS SHOULD OBTAIN."

Far from it, Mr. Voter. Dr. Cannon has found such a statement too irksomely fair. The Anti-Saloon League doesn't do business that way. It prefers to dress up policies and principles as alleged moral issues. One can rant and pant about a moral issue. Clearly stated issues require arguments and facts—commodities in which the State-widers are poor.

So, Dr. Cannon, exercising the legerdemain, for which he has a State-wide reputation, conveniently forgot that:

"THE ISSUE WOULD REALLY BE WHETHER WE SHOULD HAVE STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION OR WHETHER THE PRESENT LOCAL OPTION LAWS SHOULD OBTAIN."

He even denies to-day that there is such a thing as the PRESENT LOCAL OPTION LAWS. It is a case of political amnesia, which is the miracle of the present campaign.

Do not wonder. Dr. Cannon did the same thing before. In 1909 he supported Judge Mann when he was running for Governor on a local option platform. To-day he is denouncing equally prominent Virginians who are espousing the local option principle.

The voters of Virginia will have nothing in common with a POLITICAL CHAMELEON whose gospel changes with the wind, and who gives his support to a principle in one breath, only to withdraw it in the next, or as soon as it is profitable to do so.

THE REAL ISSUE OF THE PRESENT CAMPAIGN IS WHETHER WE SHALL ADOPT STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION, AN UNTRIED EXPERIMENT, OR, BY DEFEATING STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION, RETAIN OUR PRESENT LOCAL OPTION LAWS, WHICH WE KNOW ARE FAIR AND EQUITABLE.

The fact that the Anti-Saloon League admitted this to be the issue, only to deny it when it saw that an honest statement of the issue was fraught with danger to State-wide prohibition, only makes the issue stand out in bolder relief.

VIRGINIA ASSOCIATION FOR LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT.

INDUSTRY PARALYZED.

Removal of all Germans Capable of Bearing Arms Has Caused Trouble.

Copenhagen, Sept 8—The Berlin Vossische Zeitung discusses the extent to which German industry already has been hit by the war.

Dr. Emil Lederer, the author, says that the removal of all men capable of bearing arms has smashed industry to atoms. All links uniting the various trades have been broken.

The crisis with regard to money and credit which occured in the first instance, was accentuated by the necessity of financing the war by a single stroke.

The attempts made to meet the crisis by liquidating assets only made matters worse. The unfortunate thing is that this liquidation, which is customary in all times of crisis, does not in the present instance affect merely a small body of speculators, but expresses the fact that German industry and its productions are on fictitious bases.

A complete transformation is necessary in order to cope with the the war. At present there is little now conditions brought about by signs of this.

One sees the apparent paradox that in spite of the increasing absorption for military purposes of men capable of working there is an increase of unemployment among those that remain behind. Even the much desired labor of women cannot find employment day after day, under takings are shut down or their output diminished.

SHIPS COME FOR COAL.

Foreign Vessels at Norfolk Awaits Cargoes for Europe.

Norfolk, Va. Sept. 8—The coal mines of West Virginia are apparently now supplying all Europe with fuel through the ports of Norfolk and Newport News. Ten vessels all flying the flags of foreign nations, arrived here Saturday and Sunday for cargoes. They are anchored in Hampton Roads and off the coal piers awaiting their turn to get under the chutes to take on cargoes.

The Virginia Railway, to meet the enormous demand for coal, has stored more than 500,000 tons in its yards at Sewalls Point. Armed men are guarding this vast mountain of fuel, and every four hours its temperature is taken to prevent it from exploding from spontaneous combustion.

LETTER FROM THE UNIVERSITY

Correspondence of the Gazette

Your correspondent happened to turn aside from his more beaten vacation paths during the month of August this summer in visiting the scholastic shadows of his Alma Mater the University of Virginia. A kind friend accorded us the courtesy of her home during her vacation, and we settled down most comfortably within a few yards of the University grounds where we could view portions of the classic walls through vistas amidst the embowering mass of trees which flung their shadows over the polished grounds. We had been told that Charlottesville and its suburbs would give us all the summer heat we wanted and very possibly much more, but we were willing to risk this to be near the University. The word of warning was found to be abundantly verified, and in addition more exhausting drouth was encountered there than we left in Alexandria and its vicinity.

However notwithstanding these, weather conditions, the corresponding advantages of the situation rewarded us for our patient endurance. Memories of days long past, when we walked these grounds and sat under the learned professors of our time, came thronging upon us, and as we looked over the list of those now occupying the University chairs, we recognized only the names of Professors Thornton and Dunnington, still in continuous service, with Dr. Smith of the chair of physics as an emeritus professor. But the noble buildings designed by the master hand of Jefferson, are as imposing as ever in their simple dignity and classic strength, the expanse of the lawn as beautiful as ever, while the buildings added since the fire to provide for the loss of the old public hall, and also demanded by the expending growth of the University are in harmony with Jefferson's ideal and charterized by the same simplicity and taste. The last of these, erected within the past year and just finished, is the Education Building, devoted to the science of Pedagogics which has developed with such splendid results during the lifetime of the present generation.

The statues, on the lawn, two in number, that of Homer by the talented Ezekiel, in front of the Cabell Building, which takes the place of the Public Hall destroyed in the great fire, and the copy of Houdon's statue of Washington on the east side of the lawn near the residence of Professor Lile, are especially fine.

The group of buildings forming University, dominated by the imposing rotunda, is regarded by many as the most harmonious and stately architectural whole among Academic structures found in Amerina. When Dr. Lyman Abbott, editor of the Outlook, and Dr. Hamilton W. Mabie, associate editor of that weekly and a leading literary writer, first visited the University they were deeply impressed by the unique quality of its buildings set as they are in the wonderful frame of the surrounding mountains.

The University at once draws ones attention to its celebrated founder, Thomas Jefferson, and his home, Monticello, beautiful for situation on the mountain of the same name, about four miles of the University. It is of course known to all Virginians, and all who admire the true father of democracy in this country and is visited annually by numbers of tourists from every State of the Union, and from every civilized land. It is a fine mansion built of brick from plans drawn by Jeerson himself. The view from the lawn of Monticello is splendid. It commands the sweeps of mountain, hill and vale reaching to the Blue Ridge twenty or more miles distant, forming a vast natural amphitheatre which the eye of the beholder loves to contemplate and of which he never tires. The grounds are kept in fine order by Mr. Thomas Jefferson Levy, the owner, and it is hoped that the ill advised attempts of Mrs. Lyttleton to wrest it from him by a forced purchase may, as we believe they will, end in failure. Some day it may be hoped either the State of Virginia or some patriotic association may own it as a sacred and perpetual trust, but with the voluntary and hearty good will of the owner who may in time offer it at a proper valuation.

We admired the monument erected to the memory of Jefferson by the Jefferson Club of St. Louis on which is placed the following inscription, which should be read and inwardly digested by all lovers of liberty.

Thomas Jefferson
Citizen Statesman Patriot
The Greatest
Advocate of Human Liberty,
Opposing Special Privileges
He loved and trusted

To express their
Devotion to his principles

It was our good fortune to be accompanied on our pilgrimage to Monticello by Miss Fannie Burke, of your city, a descendant of the great democrat and patriot whose intelligence and traditional knowledge of the place and its surorundings made our visit much more interesting.

PROGRESS OF THE WAR.

William Has Prayer for German Arms Placed in Liturgy.

Emperor William has ordered the supreme council of the Evangelical Church to include the following prayer in the liturgy at all public services throughout the war:

"Almighty and merciful God, God of the armies, we beseech thee in humility for thy almighty aid for our German Fatherland. Bless the entire German war force, lead us to victory, and give us grace that we may show ourselves to be Christians toward our enemies as well. Let us soon arrive at the peace which will everlastingly safeguard our free and independent Germany."

Very much depends now upon the issue of the desperate conflict of the Russians and the Austrians first army, near Lublin and Kholm. It is clear that, despite the overthrow of the Emperor Francis Joseph's second army at Lemberg, the result of the new struggle must not be regarded as a foregone conclusion. The first army numbers 400,000 men and re-enforcements are hurrying up. It is fighting not for its own existence, but, perhaps, for the Hapsburg monarchy. The Czar's generals, in their turn know all that is at stake. They are, therefore, straining every nerve to strengthen the ranks on their right and to bring up the victorious army from Lemberg in time to participate in the battle. If the Austrians were crushed, the main roads into the heart of the German Empire and to Berlin would soon be clear for the Russian invasion.

An official announcement made at Bordeaux, the new French capital, states that the Russians have annihilated twelve Austrian army corps, about 480,000 men.

Two German officers, now prisoners, estimate losses to Kaiser's army as between 200,000 and 300,000 in killed and missing to September 4.

Reported German officers and soldiers at Tsingtau are about to mutiny against commander, who ordered the post held until last.

Germany has served notice on China that she would b eheld responsible by the Kaiser's government for permitting Japanese and British troops to cross her territory.

Count von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, returned to New York to night from Washington, where he went the night before. He declined to explain his sudden Washington visit. It is understood he was summoned by the German embassy because of important imperial instructions. One report had it that Germany desired to learn if President Wilson would again offer to mediate between the belligerent powers. Count Bernstorff, had planned a week-end visit with friends on the Hudson, which he was forced to abandon.

OPERA HOUSE OPENED.

Columbia Stock Company's First Performance to Packed House.

The Columbia Stock Company opened an indefinate engagement last evening at the opera house and played to a packed house. Its success was assured from the very start.

Many a day has passed since such a well balanced and pleasing stock company graced the stage in Alexandria. With ample stage settings, smart costumes and last but not least good actors and actresses the company made a pronounced hit in its initial appearance.

The audience was in a large measure appreciative and generous in its applause. There is not a doubt but that Manager Smith has hit on the right company to please his patrons and with the shows to be played later on as good as the one produced last night, a nightly packed house will be the result.

Tonight a repetition of last night's play "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" will be given. Wednesday night and Thursday nights, "Brother against Brother" will be the play and on Friday and Saturday nights "Under Arizona Skies"

WRIGHT HEARD FROM.

The Devil Laughs When Preachers go on the Stump.

It has been some time since I wrote to The Journal, but my friends will bear with me. No one knows better than the country people how we all look forward to the month of August when the farmer and his family lay all work aside ready for the revival meetings and those fine dinners free for everyone especially the poor bachelors for they are generally a pet among the ladies.

But instead of my belt having to be let out this year a reef had to be taken in it. All this because the preachers have turned their pulpits into a political stand and the poor sinner is left to go where Sherman said war was. The only thing that look happy now are the fine broods of chickens that had been put up and fattened for the good people who attend the revivals. These have been turned loose all because the minister did not have time to look after the poor sinner and bachelors. I had intended voting prohibition ticket. Now I am mad and so are thousands more. All going to vote for local option. Then when we hear such good men as Alfred B. Williams, Judge George L. Christian, and others, the idols of all Virginians, called names I am ashamed to call my setter dog it is enough to turn one against his brother. I tried to keep out of this fight, but when I have the names of the above friends abused I would be untrue to myself to stay quiet. All will be glad when it is over. Ties of friendship is going to be severed, wounds made that will never heal. True it is, a pity, and pity it is true. This act by the ministers of the gospel forsaking their charges, going out in the highways and byways electioneering will throw a damper over their work that will take years to recover. It is politics pure and simple, it matters not what they call it. One young couple is to be married in October, or expects to be, if the young man will vote the prohibition ticket. "I love you well," said the young man, "I shall never do anything to make an honest man dishonest or impede the prosperity of my State." She will reconsider the matter and perhaps take him.

Never since the days of the Civil War was there so much excitement.

USE "GETS-IT," CORNS SHRIVEL, VANISH!

It's the New Way, and You'll Forget You Ever Had Corns.

"2 drops put on in 2 seconds, corn shrivels, comes clean off!" That's the marvelous story of "GETS-IT," the new-plan corn cure. Nothing can be simpler for the cure of corns—and it never fails. That's why millions of people are using "GETS-IT" today and throwing away their fussy plasters, sticky tape, toe-eating salves, and "whipping outfits" that make a bundle around the toe and choke it into pain by pressing either on or around the corn. There is nothing to stick to your stocking, nothing to cause inflammation or rawness, nothing to press on or around the corn. You apply it in 2 seconds. No more knives, razors, scissors or files, with their blood-poison dangers. Try "GETS-IT" for that corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

How To Use The Telephone

Did it ever occur to you that you might not be using the telephone in the right way?

Do you speak sideways, above, below, or six inches away from the transmitter of your telephone?

You should talk directly into the transmitter—not simply at it. Keep your lips about one inch from the mouthpiece. Speak in an even tone. It is not necessary to shout.

There is much that can be said about the proper way to telephone, but these little rules will help.
